

The image shows a worksheet titled "Tableau des Responsabilités" (Responsibility Chart) in a bold, black, handwritten-style font at the top center. The background is a light cream color with large, soft, wavy shapes in shades of light blue, light orange, and light purple. Decorative elements include a blue flower in the top left, a yellow crescent moon in the top center, a purple flower in the top right, and a green plant in the middle left. There are also small yellow stars and dashed lines scattered around. The main content area is a grid with four columns and four rows. The first column is a single large rectangle. The second and third columns are each divided into four smaller rectangles. The fourth column is a single large rectangle. The grid is outlined in black. The overall design is clean, modern, and child-friendly.
